

Ethel J. Widvey

8-5-87

Mrs. Ethel J. Widvey, 80, Groton, died Tuesday, July 28, 1987, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Funeral was held at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, July 30 at Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton. The Rev. Dean Trapp officiated. Burial was in the Andover Cemetery.

Casketbearers were William Morton, Tim Morton, Todd Morton, Richard Gooding, Jan Totzke and Alan Korslin. Mrs. Ben Anderson was the organist and the Rev. Dean Trapp was the soloist.

Ethel J. Gooding was born November 14, 1906, at Columbia to William and Martha(Monroe) Gooding. She lived in Columbia until she married William Totzke at Aberdeen in November 1923. They moved to Andover. She owned and operated a restaurant in Andover for many years. Her husband died in 1965. She married Anerth Widvey at Webster in December 1968. They lived at Andover on a farm. In 1974, they moved to Bristol and lived there until he died in 1976. She then moved to Groton, where she lived until the time of her death.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church, the Coffee Cup Club and the Homemakers Club, all of Andover.

Survivors include two sons, Delaine Totzke, Rapid City; and Merrill Totzke, Mekoosa, Wis.; two brothers, LeRoy and Harold Gooding, both of Aberdeen; two sisters, Mrs. Maude Charles, Andover; and Mrs. Ada Poe, Groton; four grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, both husbands, one brother and three sisters.